

GGIS Expected Student Outcomes

At GGIS, we strive to attain our mission and vision in everything we do. Through teaching methods, curriculum, events, programs, and by leading by example, we create a learning environment that creates a family-like atmosphere allowing us to prepare students for life beyond the classroom and to meaningfully impact their generation.

Spiritual Formation

We endeavor to produce graduates who:

1. Recognize God in Creation and everyday life
2. Know how to study and read the scriptures as the Word of God in a meaningful way.
3. Understand the doctrines of eternal security and salvation by grace, and why they are vital to our walk with God.
4. Are encouraged and challenged in their personal walk with God in regards to friendship, forgiveness, redemption, and salvation
5. Understand the biblical worldview and have a basic understanding of other worldviews
6. Recognize their opportunity to personally carry out the Great Commission locally and globally in a culturally sensitive manner

Academic Development

We endeavor to produce graduates who:

1. Are well prepared in all academic disciplines and are skilled in writing, speaking, listening and thinking in the English language
2. Are proficient in reading, writing, mathematics, science, and problem solving.
3. Have knowledge and understanding of people, events, and movements in history as well as the cultures of other people and places.
4. Know how to utilize resources-including technology-to find, analyze and evaluate information.
5. Have the skills to question, solve problems and make wise decisions.
6. Have the ability to present ideas and research in visual and/or auditory format in the English language
7. Are prepared to be lifelong learners

Social / Emotional Development

We endeavor to produce graduates who will:

1. Exhibit Christian character and integrity in the home, in school, on the streets, and in the workplace.
2. Respect and relate appropriately with integrity to the people with whom they work, play, and live, without discrimination on the basis of race or faith.
3. Take the opportunity to make the most of situations and circumstances in their lives, demonstrating flexibility, self-control, patience and perseverance in good times and in bad.
4. Have the confidence in their own God-given abilities and treat each other and their elders with patience, forgiveness, and grace.
5. Understand why they should never violate others' civil and God given rights
6. Practice justice, mercy and peace-making in family and society.

Physically

We endeavor to produce graduates who :

1. Treat their bodies as the temple of the Holy Spirit through decisions about nutrition, fitness, and lifestyle and understand why this is important to do so
2. Understand and respect the differing athletic abilities of individuals, encourage others, and use appropriate sportsmanship like conduct
3. Understand the importance of teamwork and cooperation
4. Develop an appreciation and desire for lifelong fitness
5. Have an understanding of different types of sports and develop motor skills